Florence, September 5.

COunt Richecourt is gone to visit the Roads between this Place and Bologna, in order to make a new Road thither without passing over the Mountains. This is designed to facilitate the Transportation of Goods and Merchandizes into Lombardy, and Germany in particular, and if the Plan can be executed, such Merchandizes will be brought by the River from Leghorn to Signa, a Place some Miles distant from Florence, and from thence cross the Country towards Bologna and Ferrara, without passing through this City. In Consequence of this Scheme, and to render it more perfect, Barks have been appointed at Ponte de Lago Scuro, which are to depart at certain regulated Times for Trieste, where the Court of Vienna has established Post Waggons to carry such Merchandizes to Vienna, by which Means a regular Method of Trading will be opened between that Part of Germany and this State.

From the Camp at Demont, Sept. 9. The King of Sardinia is encamped here with the Piedmontese Troops. The Austrians under General Brown are at Aysone and Vinadio, about five Miles more advanced. Prince Piccolomini has with him 14 Battalions at Sambuc, about seven Miles farther. The Chain is continued by Posts of Grenadiers in the different Villages as far as Argentieres, where General St. André commands 2500 Men, detached from Prince Piccolomini, and thence his advanced Guards extend into the Territory of France.

Francfort, Sept. 18, N. S. The Elector Palatine will remove this Week from Dusseldorff to Manheim.

Liege, Sept. 19, N. S. Some Letters from Italy mention, that the French seemed to be making Dispositions for retiring out of the County of Nice to the other Side of the Var, whither they had transported their Hospitals and Magazines. Of the ten Battalions which were at Puget, there scarce remain 2000 Men. Fifteen Spanish Battalions, which had repassed the Var, have received Orders to march and occupy the Eminences of Menton.

Head Quarters at Richel, Sept. 25, N. S. We have made a Detachment of twelve Austrian Battalions, and two Regiments of Austrian Cavalry, together with the whole Hessian Corps here, consisting of five Battalions and seven Squadrons, all which will pass over the Maese at Ruremonde the Day after To-morrow, where Marshal Bathiani will join them. The Enemy continue at Bergen-op-Zoom, and have made a Detachment of thirty Battalions to Putten to invest Lillo, after the taking taking which Place, the general Talk of the French Army is, that they ſhall go into Winter Quarters. The French King ſet out for Paris laſt Saturday, and the Troops have actually begun their Winter Reviews.

Hague, Sept. 26, N. S. We have Advices from Perſia, by the Way of Ruſſia, of the 6th of July, according to which, the Revolt in that Empire was become ſo general, that Schach Nadir, ſeeing his Affairs deſperate, had reſolved to fly, with ſome Awgaitzes and Usbecks, that ſtill adhered to him, to the City of Kelat, an inacceſſible Place, where he had lodged all his Treaſures; but that, before he could execute this Reſolution, he was fallen upon and murdered in his Tent by the Perſians who ſtill remained about him. His Head was immediately ſent to his Nephew Ali-Kulikan, in whoſe Favour the Perſians had revolted; who thereupon diſpatched Orders over the whole Empire to ſuſpend and aboliſh all the Contributions impoſed by the late Schach. We hear from Steenbergen, that M. Lowendahl has not yet attempted any Thing either againſt that Place, or againſt Tholen, but that M. St. Germain has been detached with 6000 Men, and a Train of Artillery, to beſiege the Forts of Lillo, Cruysſhaus, and Frederick Henry. The Reports which had been ſpread, reflecting upon the Conduct of the Bavarian Troops, at the Time when the French made themſelves Maſters of Bergen-op-Zoom, are abſolutely falſe, it being certain, that there were no Bavarian Troops then in the Town, thoſe who had aſſiſted in the Defence of the Place, having been ordered into the Lines the Day before.

Rotterdam, Sept. 26, N. S. We have no News of the Motions of M. de Lowendahl's Corps, excepting that one of his Detachments has beſieged Lillo, and another is firing upon Fort Frederick Henry. There are Letters from Steenbergen of Yeſterday, which ſay, that the main Corps is ſtill encamped under the Cannon of Bergen-op-Zoom.

Fluſhing, Sept. 27, N. S. The States of this Province have publiſhed an Edict to call in all the Plate of this Iſland, which is to be coined into Species, and will, it is thought, produce about 40,000 l. Sterling, and for which the Owners are to have Four per Cent. They talk of following the Example of the Province of Holland, who are to furniſh Two per Cent. upon their whole Capital. It is ſaid that the Prince of Orange deſigns to ſend into theſe Iſlands Troops and all Things neceſſary for their Defence. Major General Lelly commands at Tholen, and hath about 2000 Men with him. They have already drowned, or are drowning all the Country lying Eaſtward of Tholen, and the preſent ſtrong Winds are very favourable for their Inundations. According to Accounts here, the French have attacked Fort Frederick Henry. The Dutch have about thirty armed Veſſels lying at the Mouth of the Scheld, and fourteen before Bergen-op-Zoom.

Dublin, September 14.

Yeſterday arrived his Excellency the Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Excellency was received at his Landing by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs of Dublin; the Foot Forces in Garriſon, with the Militia of the City, lined the Streets through which his Excellency (attended by a Regiment of Horſe, the Battle-Ax-Guards, and the other Officers attending the State) proceeded amidſt the Acclamations of the People, with the uſual Ceremony, to the Caſtle, where, in the Council-Chamber, his Excellency took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lord Juſtices. After which, the Great Guns at his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix were fired, and anſwer'd by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon College Green. And his Excellency repairing to the Preſence-Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, upon his ſafe Arrival to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.
